

Peer Pivot

How to Trade Peer Pressure
For Peer Support

Felix in a blog duet with Ingo

Your peers appreciate you for what you are to them.
This can result in peer pressure to remain the same and stop you from growing because...

... we all want to belong.

Peer pivot is about finding the peers who support you in becoming who you want to be next.

There are two ways to peer pivot...

Way #1:

Identify & engage with peers that are headed towards the same goal.

Way #2:

Identify & engage with peers that are going through a similar life experience.

Call to Action

Want to peer pivot?

Comment with #peerpivot and we send you our Peer Pivot For Changemakers
worksheet to guide you.

How we wrote this post as a contribution to #meinZiel22 #clc

Duet Writing Experience

1. Agree on rough topic
2. Asynchronous-first drafts
3. Open discussion
4. Identify resonant message
5. Asynchronous crafting of blog post weaving personal stories
6. Final "polishing call"

Contact us!

Ingo Rauth, Ph.D.

www.schoolofbecoming.org

Felix Harling

flow-discovery.de

